Search Online

Go to <http://libcat.corkcity.ie> to search our collection of books.

Click on the Newspapers/Periodicals tab to search our index of newspapers and journal articles. (Articles are not available to view/download. You must call in to the reference library to read them)

Group Visits

We welcome visits by groups and classes. An introductory tour can be booked to see what is available, and learn how to do research for projects etc.

Leaving Cert. History Projects

Group or class visits are available from Tuesday-Friday inclusive and can be tailored to particular group needs.

Library staff will select relevant books and newspaper or journal articles for use by the students when they visit.

Staff will also show students how to use the Library Catalogue, enabling them to make fuller use of our extensive resources.

Making a Booking

This must be made well in advance of the visit and a list of the subjects to be researched sent in to the Reference library no later than two weeks beforehand.

Please enquire at the Reference desk or contact us at (021) 4924911/4924912 or at reference_library@corkcity.ie
