Cork City Libraries Image Use Policy

How we use images

To comply with Data Protection legislation we need written permission to take, store and use images of people. Images include photographs and film footage.

Cork City Libraries use images in the following ways:

- Library promotional materials and publications, print materials such as events guide, newsletters, posters. Images in this category will be kept for 2 years.
- Social networking websites and library websites. Images in this category will be kept for 1 year.
- Archival purposes. Images in this category are considered to have historical significance, and will be kept indefinitely as part of our archive.

Storage

Images will be stored securely, according to Cork City Council's Information Security procedures. We will not include personal information or postal addresses, email addresses or telephone numbers in any promotional use.

Consent

When we take a photograph or record film we will ask you to fill out a consent form in advance. Data subjects have the right to withdraw consent by contacting Data Protection Officer, Corporate and External Affairs, Floor 3 City Hall, Cork. In the case of print materials, it will not be possible to recall the items should consent be withdrawn.

Under 18s

If the data subject is under 18 a parent or guardian must give permission.

Third Party

From time to time we may share images with third parties, such as grant applications. You will be informed of this on the consent form, and you will have the option to refuse permission.

Data Access Requests or Queries

Please address your query or request to Data Protection Officer, Corporate and External Affairs, Floor 3 City Hall, Cork.
