

Business Databases (cont.):

www.vision-net.ie

www.lexisnexis.com/clients/irishpubliclibraries/

ASK ABOUT IRELAND

Historical and cultural information about Ireland

Ordnance Survey Historic Maps

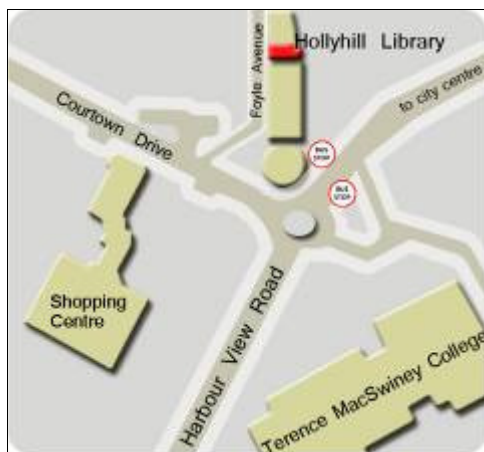

Irish Times Archive

Griffiths Valuation

ENFO environment information and more

www.askaboutireland.ie

LOCATION

We are located on Foyle Avenue, at the rear of The Drum, in the same building as the Senior Citizens' Centre. The library is on the first floor.

Opening Hours

Tuesday - Saturday

10.00 a.m. - 1.00 p.m.

2.00 p.m. - 5.30 p.m.

www.corkcitylibraries.ie/hollyhill/

TOP TIPS FOR YOUR PROJECT

1. Check the library catalogue for books on your topic
2. Check the library catalogue for newspaper or magazine articles on your topic
3. Use the library's computers to check the Internet or to type up your project
4. Use the CSO website for statistics to back up your project
5. Check out www.askaboutireland.ie for information, articles and projects on many topics relating to Ireland
6. Use our free business databases for company or business information
7. Use the Childcare Collection for information on all aspects of child development, child care, education and health.
8. Ask a Librarian! We're here to help.

Hollyhill Library , Foyle Avenue,
Knocknaheeny, Cork

021 4924928

E-mail: hollyhill_library@corkcity.ie

www.corkcitylibraries.ie/hollyhill/

A Hollyhill Library Guide for Students and Teachers

LIBRARIES
LEABHARLANNA

CORK CITY COUNCIL | COMHAIRLE CATHRACH CHORCAÍ

www.corkcitylibraries.ie/hollyhill/

SIGN UP

STUDENTS - join the library at a special rate of €1.25! Membership is free for students under 18 years.

TEACHERS - register for a free group membership and take books to use in the classroom.

OUR SERVICES

We provide a wide range of books, CDs and DVDs. We also provide daily newspapers for our customers. If you don't find what you're looking for here, we can request books from our other libraries in the Cork City area.

LIBRARY TOURS

Book in your group for an information skills sessions. We will show your group how to use the library, including how to find books, how to use the catalogue, and how to make best use of the internet to find information for projects.

ONLINE SERVICES

Free online access to Encyclopedia Britannica, JSTOR and to the following business databases - Kompass, business.ie, Nexis and Vision-net. Ask your librarian for help or further information.

FREE INTERNET for research purposes. Enquire at library for details.

PUBLIC COMPUTERS Use our public computers to type up your project. All PCs have Microsoft Office packages.

COMPUTER CLASSES

Free computer classes for complete beginners. Call to enquire about the next start date.

CHILDCARE COLLECTION

We subscribe to childcare.ie magazine, and we hold a small collection of books on various issues of childcare and children's health.

WEBSITES & RESOURCES

Cork City Libraries
www.corkcitylibraries.ie

Library Catalogue
<http://libcat.corkcity.ie>

Driver Theory Test CD ROM ask at desk

JSTOR Online Journals ask at desk

Cork City Council www.corkcity.ie

Cork County Council www.corkcoco.ie

Central Statistics Office www.cso.ie

Cork History and Information
www.corkpastandpresent.ie

Irish Government
www.gov.ie

Irish Government News Service
www.merrionstreet.ie

Health Services
www.hse.ie

Revenue Services Online
www.ros.ie

Citizens Information
www.citizensinformation.ie

EU Information
http://europa.eu/index_en.htm

Courses & Qualifications
www.qualifax.ie

Evening Courses
www.nightcourses.com

Maps
www.multimap.com

Independent Financial Advice
www.itsyourmoney.ie

Birth / Marriage /
Death Certificates Online
www.birthsdeathsandmarriages.ie

Census Information
www.nationalarchives.ie

Information About Unemployment
www.losingyourjob.ie

Encyclopedia Britannica
www.library.eb.co.uk

BUSINESS DATABASES
(available in the library):
www.kompass.com
www.business.ie

