

Described as an intelligent love story in a cold war climate this book captures the essence and madness of a consuming and illicit passion.

A tantalizing page turner set in South London during World War 1 where the characters live in the dark with their dreams, secrets and fantasies

Can a family once unravelled become whole again? This is the question at the heart of this book as a family try to free themselves from the past .

A charming coming of age novel about an eccentric family struggling to live in a decaying English castle in the 1930's

LUCKY DIP BOOKCLUB

This is a reading group with a difference!

Members chose their own book to read and then meet once a month to chat informally about books and authors.

Members recommend books for our monthly newsletter and also make invaluable suggestions for new library stock.

Members are invited to book launches in all libraries as well as having an opportunity to attend the World Book Festival held annually in Cork.

The book club meet on the first Friday of the month at 11.00am in Bishopstown Library.

If you enjoy reading, meeting people and have time for a chat and a cup of tea , then why not give Lucky Dip a try?

FIRST FRIDAY OF EVERY MONTH @ 11.00am.

Further enquiries to cherie_osullivan@corkcity.ie

T : 021 4924953

LUCKY DIP BOOKCLUB

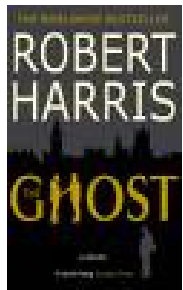

BISHOPSTOWN LIBRARY

Recommended
Reading ...
Check it out!

Quite honesty is a comic novel with entertaining reflections on crime. John Mortimer is the author of the popular Rumpole series

A political thriller giving the fictional account of a ghostwriter who has been hired to write the autobiography of a British P.M.

The Book Thief is the story of a young girl, her family and the boxer in their basement as they struggle to survive in Nazi Germany .

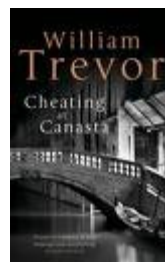

An exceptional novel of artists and lovers caught in the maelstrom of World War 1

The Hungry Tide is a prophetic tale of people, of love and life of ambition and of issues and the environment set around the Bay of

On Chesil Beach is a tale that traces the story of a young couple on their wedding night. A novel of remarkable depth.

Cheating at Canasta is another gem of a collection of short stories from one of the masters of the genre William Trevor. Highly recommended

A simple, but well written story of village life and the passions of youth . Nemirovsky was killed in Auschwitz in World War 11.

A quirky, coming of age story in 1980's Ireland. a darkly funny and touching book from a new Irish author.

Elements of Puccini's grand opera, Turandot, pervade the novel in a dramatization of love, life and possibility set in Morag Joss' native Scotland.

Duet by Carol Shields is a tender, funny and insightful portrayal of two sisters struggling to rediscover themselves amidst the swirl of family life.

At Weddings and Wakes tells the story of three generations of an Irish American family through the eyes of its youngest members. A celebration of familial love and childhood.